TAFI'S SCARES

TRUMPANT TOUR OF DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT IN NEW YORK.

SEVENTEEN SPEECHES MADE BY THE NEBRASKAN

CLIMAX REACHED AT ROCHESTER, WHERE STATE CONVENTION WAS IN SESSION.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 16.—As the culminating feature of the Democratic state convention which closed today, there was a notable demonstration here tonight in honor of the party's standard bearer, William J. Bryan, who reached the city shortly after 7 o'clock, and addressed a mass meeting in Convention hall and overflowed gatherings outside.

Presiding over the Convention hall assembly was Judge Alton B. Parker, the presidential candidate four years ago, who took advantage of the occasion to make a personal pledge of his earnest fealty to the national ticket. As Mr. Bryan and Judge Parker stood side by side before the great assemblage, which choked the hall to its capacity, the cheering welled up in a deafening roar.

Mr. Bryan's Response.

Mr. Bryan acknowledged Judge Parker's pledge of his own support and the support of the "United Democracy of the Empire state," in words as gracious as the pledge had been extended.

Mr. Bryan expressed his gratitude for the nomination today of Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler as head of the state ticket, and paid a personal tribute to him. Mr. Chanler had joined the Nebraska at Syracuse this afternoon, and was with him at dinner tonight at the General Valley club.

On the stage with Mr. Bryan and Judge Parker were the state leaders, Chairman William J. Conners of Buffalo, Leader Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall, and National Chairman Norman E. Mack.

All the Streets Thronged.

The downtown streets were thronged all evening long, and the progress of the candidate from place to place was difficult for the crowds which pressed about him. Augustus Thomas spoke to the waiting crowd from the balcony of the arrival of Mr. Bryan. Judge Parker stepped forward to offer a forward railing than an introduction. He said:

"The United Democracy of the state of New York joins heartily with the people of Rochester in bidding welcome to our guest of honor, and we pledge him our earnest support until victory comes."

"It is worth coming a long way," said Mr. Bryan, "to participate in the closing honors of a great convention in this country's greatest state."

Mr. Bryan appreciated Judge Parker's cordial words in presenting me to you. I appreciate the pledge he has given, and especially do I appreciate his own earnest part in the fulfillment of that pledge.

Praised Chanler.

"I am gratified that the great convention which closed today placed at the head of its ticket one so worthy to carry the party's standard. I believe that Chanler represents a class that I believe will be a growing class in this country. He is a man of means who has not been weaned from his sympathy with the common people. I believe we are entering upon a new era in American politics, and in the years to come I believe that more men than in the past of Mr. Chanler's type will consecrate their lives and their means to the service of the people."

"I appreciate the spirit of harmony that prevailed in this convention. All metals, my friends, fuse at such heat, and as there comes a degree which welds us all together in a common cause. Everywhere throughout this time, the Democratic are getting together to get control of this government."

The Nebraska then plunged into his set speech.

Made a Club Record.

While in the midst of his address Mr. Bryan was interrupted by former Assemblyman John Palace, Jr., of Rochester, who stated that if he would consent to suspend for five minutes the Democrats of Monroe county would show him more substantial support than mere applause and cheering.

Users rushed about the hall handing out blank applications for membership in the central Bryan and Kern club, containing a pledge to vote and work for the success of the national ticket. There were also spaces to mark the last ticket voted by the signers. When the slips had all been collected Mr. Palace announced that more blank applications and pledges had been made.

Overflow Addresses.

In his addresses to the overflow crowds, Mr. Bryan spoke briefly along the same lines as at the Convention hall.

The dinner tendered to Mr. Bryan at the Genesee Valley club was as notably significant in its gathering of the leaders of the party in the state as was the meeting in Convention hall. Among the guests invited to meet Mr. Bryan were Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, John A. Dix, Judge Parker, Norman E. Mack, Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, Charles F. Murphy, William J. Conners, Daniel F. Cohalan, Lewis

RACKETEER'S FOREIGN

HITCHCOCK PROPOSES TO TRY AND RECOVER LOST GROUND DURING OCTOBER.

TAFI'S FIRST ITINERARY

CANDIDATE TO COME AS FAR WEST AS DENVER.

Cincinnati, Sept. 16.—Republican campaign plans were made public today as the result of an important conference held between Judge Taft, National Chairman Hitchcock, Senator Dixon, director of the western speakers' bureau; Judge Charles Nagel, national committeeman from Missouri, and in charge of Chicago headquarters, and Judge Richard A. Ballinger, member of the advisory committee from the state of Washington. Not only was Judge Taft's first speaking trip definitely decided upon and announced, but Chairman Hitchcock for the first time gave expression to his ideas regarding the plan adopted for the general conduct of the campaign.

"Red Fire" Campaign in October.

"There have been numerous criticisms," said Mr. Hitchcock, "to the effect that the Republican campaign was at a standstill and that the opposition party was carrying things by default. There may be a semblance of truth in this at the present moment, but it has been considered the wisest plan to make the 'racket and red fire' campaign during the month of October."

He thinks there will be no ground for criticism from any quarter when that time arrives.

Mr. Hitchcock gave many reasons for the pursuit of this course. It was highly desirable that the strong Republican orators should be placed where their services were really needed. It was impossible to ascertain these places without first-hand information regarding political conditions. This information would be obtained by that time, he said, and instead of having shots wasted previously by being fired at random the efforts would be accurately directed.

One Month Enough.

Most of the Republican speakers feel that one month's strenuous work is all that they can undertake with the expenditure of vitality required, and Chairman Hitchcock said he would much rather have these speakers able to work up to the very last moment of the campaign with vigor than have them worn out by early and perhaps badly directed efforts. The list of Republican orators who are to enter the field, Mr. Hitchcock said, is greater in number and ability than in any previous campaign. Sept. 28, and have expressed belief that the Republican party had been put under full swing he indicated that there would be no occasion for impatience.

As to the labor situation, Mr. Hitchcock believes that false statements are being made to laboring men, and will finally win him high popularity. When the machine is taking the proper steps to have them shown as such, it was his expressed belief that the Republican party had been put under full swing he indicated that there would be no occasion for impatience.

Taft's Western Trip.

Senator Dixon, who has personally arranged the details of the itinerary of Taft, gave it in the following language:

"Secretary Taft will start on his western trip, leaving Cincinnati on Monday, Sept. 21, at 10 o'clock, for Brook, Ind., at George Ade's farm, at noon; the night of Sept. 24 at Milwaukee; at Madison, Wis., on the 25th; at St. Paul, Minn., on the 26th; at Minneapolis, on the 27th; at St. Paul, Minn., on the 28th; at Fargo, N.
